

WATER CANADA

Innovation in Action

Active Treatment Plants Put Wastewater Advancements to the Test

INSIDE: water's next awards 2015
WINNERS!
page 15

Advancing Wastewater
Assets (page 12)

Social Innovation in the Water Sector (page 26)

Tracking Watershed
Data (page 32)

water's next awards 2015

SPECIAL FEATURE

Water Canada proudly profiles the eight Water's Next 2015 winners.

PAGE 15

FEATURES

24 Water, Food, and Our Climate

Is California a harbinger of things to come?

BY JON FENNELLS AND OKSANA KIELBASINSKI

26 Idea Generator

How to accelerate social innovation in the water sector.

BY JOSÉE MÉTHOT

32 Tracking Data

Do you know how healthy your watershed is?

BY JAMES SNIDER

WASTEWATER

8 Raising the Bar

New wastewater facilities help set a new standard for research and innovation.

BY EVELYN ALLEN AND DEIRDRE HEALEY

CONVEYANCE

12 Moving Forward

University researchers work within municipal facilities to advance wastewater treatment.

BY SEAN MYERS

8

12

26

30

32

WATER RESOURCES

28 Overloaded

A new watershed management approach uses a phosphorus offsets program with advanced wastewater treatment.

BY HEATHER BREWER

DRINKING WATER

30 Linking Pipes

A not-for-profit organization aims to connect the world with clean drinking water.

BY STUART FRINGS

COLUMNS

36 Rules & Regs

Water professionals must keep calm and carry on.

BY ROBERT HALLER

42 H2Opinion

It's time to incorporate innovation into climate change adaptation.

BY CARL BODIMEADE

DEPARTMENTS

5 Editor's Note

Coming clean about wastewater.

BY RACHEL PHAN

6 Front

MARY JOHNSTON writes about the foreign acquisition of water bottling operations and Water Canada revisits Panamanian.

37 People and Events

Jobs, awards, contracts, and the latest event coverage.